WILLIAM LESLIE.

MAUA BANK,

CALLE CANGALLO, Nos 101—103

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of cheques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta. Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 9 a in till 4 p.m.

Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool, with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 16 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £ 00,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 99 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1863 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £840,000 is real and substantial property:" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £300,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1864.

BARBARITIES IN BANDA ORIENTAL.

Few persons in Buenos Ayres have even the remotest idea of the diabolical outrages perpetrated by the Government troops in the war on the other side of the La Plata. Most sufferers are either unable or afraid to publish an account of their injuries, and it is only when some one contrives to escape to this city that we learn the horrible details.

Some days ago a foreign estanciero landed at Colonia, with the intention of driving some sheep to his estancia near Paysandú. On reaching Mercedes he was detained twenty days, while the Blanco army under Servando Gomez was passing the Rio Negro. Our friend all this time kept his sheep in ambuscade, knowing that if the Government troops discovered them not one would escape. He proceeded northward some thirty leagues, luckily meeting no army of either color, and arrived safe at his estancia, where the capitaz informed him that Servando Gómez had recently paid a visit, and, in the name of the Montevidean Government, carried off 600 head of horned cattle. As the plunderers seem to have always committed havoc out of mere wantonness, they killed numbers of cattle and left the carcase untouched, except cutting off a piece of 'matambre,' or the tongue. The hides if uninjured would in value greatly compensate the unfortunate estancieros, but this army of scoundrels invariably cut and mutilated the hide, to render it worthless. The march of the Blancos left a train of infamous destruction which would disgrace the troops of Dahomy, or of Tartary! In one place they fell upon a fine flock of sheep, of which the owner offered them as many fat 'capones' as they wanted: the ruffians took and killed twenty-five rams of Negretti breed, valued at £30 sterling each.

On the other hand, the rebel army under Flores has displayed great moderation. A few days before Servando Gomez robbed our friend of six hundred cows, General Flores came to the same estancia and asked for twelve animals, giving a receipt for same, with value expressed, payable when the revolution has been successful. The Blanco troops gave no receipt, their uniform practise being, to rob and destroy all that came in their way.

The same evening that our estanciero reached his place near Paysandú, a poor colored man, wearied and hungry, presented himself, begging a little food and the night's lodging. Mr. —— took compassion on him, and directed the servants to give him some dinner in the kitchen. In half an hour, an officer, attended by four gaucho soldiers, rode up to the house, and enquired if there were any deserters, to which the estanciero replied in the negative, but the blood-thirsty soldiers proceeded to search the house and found the poor negro, whom they dragged out before the kitchen door, and pinning him to the ground, cut his throat from ear to ear, without giving the victim time to recommend his soul to the Creator.

Flores is very strict with his men, and this makes the rebel cause very popular among foreigners. Some days back, one of his men set upon and wounded with a lance a native shepherd near Mercedes: he was next day shot at headquarters.

Our friend has visited both the contending armies, and describes the condition and appearance of the soldiers in general as the most disgusting and villainous that can be imagined, the rebels being even poorer and worse clad than the others. But if there can be a premium for rascality, it falls without competition to the army of Servando Gomez, and the sooner a Government with such supporters come to the ground the better for the country and the honor of Humanity.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The weather looks bad for shearing, the majority of the farmers in the North have already commenced, but it has been raining outside. This is a great inconvenience for our friends the farmers, a few weeks fine weather now is very desirable.

Town is rife with all sorts of rumours respecting Flores and the people in Montevideo. Yesterday an Oriental gentleman called on us to say that Flores has no such force as 4,000 men, and that it is utterly untrue that the Brazilians have landed men and cannons, that Flores is not able to take the place, and will retire again, we for our part think from what we have heard from Englishmen just arrived, that if Flores does not enter Montevideo now, he never will.

We have frequently called attention to the gigantic increase in the value of real estate about town. If property keeps rising at the present rate, soon a building lot in a back street will fetch a higher price than a house in Regent street, London, or on Broadway, New York. An old yard or barraca in the Boca, purchased in 1860 in the sum of one hundred and sixty thousand paper dollars, was sold the other day in nine hundred ounces.

A yard in calle Buen Orden, which a few years ago was valued at 70 or 80 thousand dollars, was sold recently in a little over half a million currency.

A few hundred yards front, by about ninety deep, situated on the other side of the Barraca-bridge, close to the river, was bought the day before yesterday by a leading broker, for two hundred thousand dollars. Two years ago this bit of ground would not bring twenty thousand dollars.

The "Pueblo" publishes another communication respecting the great Buschental loan of ten millions currency. The writer of the article says that the Bank has taken the Bonds as security at 30, and that when the bills become due if Sr. Buschental cannot pay up, these bonds will be thrown on the market and will not probably realize 20 per cent. The deficit will have to be made good by the River Plate Bank. We incline to the opinion that it is mainly owing to the scarcity of news that private transactions are forced upon public notice. If every financial transaction made by the Bank or private individuals is to be published in the newspapers, the Bank Directors might as well start a paper themselves. We have more connection with the mercantile community, and are better "posted up" on commercial matters than most of our colleagues, and we must say that so far from regarding the loan and guarantee in question as extra dangerous, we consider it as secure as a loan on bond and mortgage. We protest against this system of lampooning Bank Managers and Directors for lending money. They are the best judges of the value of the security offered. We, ourselves, want to borrow some paper money, but candidly speaking, we are afraid to apply, for fear of our colleague, the "Pueblo," hearing about it.

On Tuesday, an Englishman named Wilson, who, we hear, resides in Quilmes, presented himself at the house of Dr. Pongerard, who is the director of the English grammar school in Barracas, and stated that he had been robbed of his horse and cart, and a quantity of butter; also his hat. He stated that he had been most shamefully treated, and, we believe, lassoed and dragged along the road. Inquiries have been made into the matter, but, strange to say, although the attack is said to have taken place at two o'clock in the day, none of the shopkeepers or neighbours seem to have known anything about it. The whole affair seems to be locked in mystery.

The foot race, which was to have come off in Barracas on Sunday, between the two Basques, did not take place, owing to the day being too hot.

News from the province of San Juan is not to say of the most favourable nature. All the miners are at law: several of the judges have refused to act. Mr. Rickard leaves to-day in the Pavon for San Juan, having completed his arrangements with the stockholders here.

A panic-stricken British subject rushed into our office yesterday, to tell us that some 300 or 400 English letters were about to be consumed in the Post-office. These letters, we understand, are written by parties in the town, camp, and provinces, and not having an Argentine postage stamp, are sequestrated by law. Parties who post their letters in the National Post-office, should bear in mind that although they put an English shilling stamp on their letters, they will not be forwarded, unless an Argentine stamp is affixed also.

We hear that the enterprizing English engineer, Mr. Saunders, is about to open a new English foundry establishment at the foot of calle San Martin. We have no doubt it will do a flourishing business.

Mr. Palliere, we think, picks up more subscribers to his album in our office than at any of our colleagues. We got a new subscriber for him yesterday: name and address will be given on application.

The coopers are all astounded at the magnitude of the order we have at our office: ten thousand small barrels. One wealthy Ligurian stated that he could not fill the order in less time than fourteen years. Colleagues, please call the attention of the native tinsmiths and coopers, as we would rather see the orders filled in Buenos Ayres than in Birmingham or Boston. Ten thousand tins and ten thousand small kegs or barrels are wanted, and it appears no one in Buenos Ayres is able to take up the contract. What a shame!

We have to thank Mr. H. R. Helper, the United States Consul in Buenos Ayres, for the United States National Almanac and Annual Record for 1863, which he has most kindly presented us with. It is a book full of the most interesting data, and we hope to be able to make some useful extracts from it.

We should be indeed sorry to give credit to the stories current about the private treaties spoken of between Flores and Brazil, and we feel confident that if Flores attempted to deliver up one thousand colored people to Brazilian slave dealers, the English Government would interfere. There cannot, therefore, be one word of truth in the story, for the thing is simply impossible.

Several small gunboats and launches, belonging to the Brazilians have actually ascended the Rio Negro, and more boats are about to follow. The plunder and devastation which is now going on in the Banda Oriental baffles description. The Government troops are committing all sorts of barbarities Gracious Heavens! every foreigner exclaims, when will there be a stop put to this.

Messrs. Fuentes, Tejedor & Medrano have been nominated by the Senate to fill the places of Sres. Muniz, Montes de Oca & Gainza on the permanent Legislative Committee.

We have received a sample of the new beef from Lujan. We could only wish that all our readers had an opportunity of trying it. The juicy beefsteaks heretofore so unknown in Buenos Ayres will now be attainable.

The Bishop of Buenos Ayres has sent a note to Minister Costa, thanking him and his Government for their efforts on behalf of religion, and for raising the Buenos Ayrean see into an Archbishopric.

Brazilian Slave-owners will henceforth have to keep a good watch on their niggers in passing up and down the River Plate, for the Reis fugitive-slave case is still before the courts and we believe will be decided in favor of the unhappy blacks. We gather from our great morning colleague that when Sr. Marmol was last in Rio a black Argentine slave appeared to him — he covered the colored man with the Argentine flag, and that moment

"The altar and the gods sank together
In the dust, his soul walked abroad
In her own majesty, his body swelled
Beyond the measure of the folds which Burst from around him and he stood
Redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled by
The irresistible genius of Argentine Emancipation."

At least, thus would our revered fellow-countrymen, Curran, have depicted the imposing ceremony.

The Deputies have at last passed the final project to redeem the paper dollar, having stricken out the power to make a loan. The projects now go up before the Senate, where we hear they will meet with great opposition. The probabilities are, that this time five years we will definitely settle the paper dollar, not sooner. The declaration of Minister Cardenas, that the Government would not veto the bills if passed, and that the sessions would be prolonged until the matter is finally settled, ought to inspire some confidence, we admit, but the fact of the matter is, that the paper dollar is a chronic complaint, and cannot be remedied in a moment. If even the law were passed to-morrow, we cannot see how it would alter the value of gold, unless gold is introduced into the country; but the Chamber has prohibited this, therefore the whole scheme will prove only effective on paper.

We join with our colleague, the 'Tribuna,' in calling attention to the shameful manner in which the poor camp people are forced into service, and made to live on the frontier. Repeated complaints have been sent to us on the subject. Really the Government ought to introduce some reform, for the most scandalous stories about non-paying, non-feeding, and overworking the soldiers, are current in the camp.

Four vessels have arrived from Europe within the last two days, laden with railway iron, three for the Southern Railway, and one for the Argentine Central Railway.

It is whispered about that a gentleman has arrived, by last packet, with the intention of relieving us of the arduous editorial duties under which we have dragged out existence during the last four years. The idea is really refreshing, as the editors of the 'Standard' feel almost "used up," and, having made a little money for their premature old age would gladly sink into private life. But there is one difficulty—the public will not admit their retirement, and so they must reluctantly continue in harness, until pronounced unserviceable. Mr. What-do-you-call-him has for these reasons postponed his idea, and will probably take to sheep.

Among our refugees from Montevideo is the popular teacher of languages Professor Loedel, an Englishman by birth, and well known in the River Plate. His advertisement is to be found in our columns.

Latest accounts from Dolores state that the officer Delgado, who fired on the Basques, is still in prison. We hope he may never get out!

Colonel Conesa has settled the row in San Nicolas, by enforcing the military levy as ordered by the Provincial Government. The Justice of Peace (Carranza) has resigned.

The Literary Conference, and choristers' benefit at Colon are both advertised for to-morrow evening. We suggest that the first be postponed till Monday next.

We have received a severe attack bearing some French signature, about our remarks on the Patagonian missions. As we exclude controversial disputes from our columns, we can pay it no attention.

We have been favored with a communication respecting the deceased Miss Thompson, which we will publish to-morrow.

THE PALLIERE ALBUM.

No. 1. Landing at low water. The view is taken from the end of the mole, embracing the inner roads and shipping, and gives a faithful picture of the strange and disagreeable process of landing in carts, as described by Parish several years ago. The mole has not remedied the evil, for when the river is very low, as in the present sketch, the whaleboats convey passengers half-way ashore, and then tranship them to the care of these wild-looking waggoners. The groups of men and women has some European faces, and their mind is divided between wonderment at the process, and attention not to lose their equilibrium in the movement of the cart. The horses are up to their nose in the water, and apparently accustomed to it. The Italian boatmen in their small craft are scudding about in all directions, and the smoke in the horizon indicates the arrival of a steamer from some of the river or foreign ports. The 'changadors' are waiting on the mole, to seize the luggage of the passengers in the carts, who make their debut in Buenos Ayres under such peculiar circumstances. We may remind the foreign reader that there are no regular tides in the River Plate, but low water is generally caused by a strong West wind.

No. 2. The cock-fight. Here are 14 gauchos earnestly gathered around a ring in which two cocks, evidently wounded, are engaged in mortal combat. There is little in the picture for comment, as it is merely a characteristic tableau of Argentine manners. Several of the by-standers have a most brutal expression, shewing the morbid taste for scenes of blood which form part of their everyday life. The anxiety on many countenances speaks of the heavy wagers, and those murderous knives sticking in the belt are ready on a moment's notice to settle whatever difficulties may arise. These demoralizing sports are strictly prohibited in England, and as B. Ayres has abolished bull-fights, we hope cock-fights will also be done away with.

No. 3. The palace of Palermo. The artist gives a correct vista of the former palace of the tyrant Rosas. The building is in Moorish style, and very graceful: it might almost serve in the illustrations of the Arabian Nights. A colonnade runs round the three wings of the palace, and the azotea is decorated with neat iron railings. There are some splendid saloons and chambers, now rotting in dust and cobwebs, where luxury and despotism held so long their court. In 1852 Urquiza established here his head-quarters, and the gaucho soldiery trampled down the beautiful flower gardens once tended by the amiable Manuelita Rosas. It was subsequently used by Sr. Posadas for the Argentine industrial exhibition, and then allowed to fall to ruin as a hateful memento of unhappy times. If those weeping willows could speak, how many tales of blood would they recount? There is a strange air of melancholy about the place, filled with superstitious awe. At present the avenues are used as a promenade on summer evenings, and Mr. Paris projects converting them into a people's park. The palace is also being adapted for a model-school. In the background of the picture we see the barracks, where the Dictator's praetorian guards were quartered.

No. 4. The gauco's cradle. Here is the first stage of the gaucho life, which is so faithfully depicted in M. Palliere's sketches. A rude contrivance is suspended from the roof of the rancho, and a chubby-faced child is fast asleep while the mother sits by in meditation. The woman's features are coarse, and her complexion dark, but the profile is almost Grecian. A guitar hangs on the wall, and a dog is in the foreground apparently watching the cot of the sleeping baby. The furniture of the rancho consists of the usual gear for gaucho-cavaliers, and the poncho lying on the bench indicates that the paterfamilias is not far from home.

NEWS FROM THE PROVINCES.

ROSARIO.

The 'Ferro-carril' to the 18th instant contains no news. Some neighbors have sent a petition to the Municipality against opening a new road down to the beach, on the ground that it is not wanted, but injurious to private properties. The works of the Central Railway are somewhat paralyzed by the bad weather: on Monday the rails were commenced on the fourth mile; 600 tons of rails had been landed by the Perseverance and Mary Falconer, and two more vessels are daily expected with materials. There is an important arrival of rams mentioned from Buenos Ayres—61 negrette rams and 29 ewes; also 8 rams and 6 ewes Rambouillet, the Negrettes from Sociedad Rural of B. Ayres, the others from Europe. The wool of the Rambouillets is seven inches in length, and that of the Negrettes (14 month's old) five and a half inches. A great election meeting took place at San Lorenzo on Sunday. Mr. Duguid publishes a notice that he will pay no attention to anonymous attacks in the newspapers. Sor. Bosco is giving his magical performances in the theatre.

The 'Rosario' states that two children have been drowned, and that Deputies Oroño and Granel meditate a trip to Europe, but this seems only a joke. The famous politician Padre Ugarte is about to open a school at Corrientes.

PARANA.

The 'Parana' and 'Litoral' date to the 15th inst. The former opposes the Government project of allowing only one pulperia or camp grog-shop in each district, on the grounds that it is a monopoly. We consider the idea most laudable and would wish to see it carried out also in the province of Buenos Ayres, as these places are hotbeds of iniquity. D. Francisco Martinez made a brilliant discourse at the opening of the convent orphan-school. The 'Parana' states that Macia's Saladero reported to have failed, owes not a dollar to anyone. The inauguration of the Soeurs de Charité on the 11th inst., was a grand affair, and the citizens are in great spirits for the event. There is much noise about the new law of the Press, which is in future to be regulated by five jurors. Dr. Felipe Alvarez, lately received as L. L. D., in Buenos Ayres is a native of Paraná, and said to give hopes of talent.

MONTEVIDEO.

The "Plata" and "Reforma" date to Tuesday morning. The note of the Brazilian Admiral was to the effect that the Fairy (now Uruguay) will not be impeded in her passenger traffic, unless carrying troops or ammunition for the Government. The authorities seem to prepare a stout resistance in the city; the President visits the outposts every day and new batteries are being made. The Minister of War assisted at Pizard's skirmish with the Colorados near Cordon, when the latter were routed by a few rounds of canister, the Blancos only having a Sergeant wounded and a horse killed. Some few prisoners have been brought in, and Saa holds the outskirts with 1,000 men. A decree is published forbidding the sale of arms, without a permit from the Policia. Colonels Lenguas and Estrada are named overseers of the new lines of fortifications. The Chief of Police has been dubbed Colonel and is succeeded by D. Amaro Sienra.

The number of visitors, on Sunday, to the Spanish fleet was estimated at 1,000. D. Pedro Llambí has been named inspector of an Insurance Co. Mr. Lybie has arrived from Liverpool as agent for Messrs. Roskell, to receive contracts for putting up public clocks. The funeral of Sor. Esteves was numerously attended. We read that the Brazilian Admiral has notified the foreign agents in Buenos Ayres that he is about to commence reprisals in the Uruguay. The following letter is from our correspondent:—

October 18th, 1864.

Yesterday the town was in a great state of excitement, as Flores appeared close by — at the Paso Molina and the Union. Saa raised his encampment at the Union and came to the Cordon. There was some guerrilla fighting, in which three or four were killed and seventeen wounded. During the night Flores retired about two leagues, and Saa went out to the Union again this morning, and the National Guard were allowed to go to their homes. At nine o'clock Flores appeared again at the Cerrito, where he fired a salute of 21 guns. An alarm was immediately made, and the National Guard called back to duty. After several manœuvres, Flores has encamped on this side of the Cerrito, and he is now very quietly taking his asado there, just as though he was in his own house. The houses and miradors were all full of people with spy-glasses looking at them. They are hard at work making batteries and ditches a little further outside the stone barricades. All kind of business is at a stand-still. The Rio de la Plata leaves this afternoon for Buenos Ayres, and will leave on her first regular trip for Salto next Friday. She made the passage down the last trip from Buenos Ayres in nine hours, arriving here at five o'clock in the afternoon. She made a pleasure excursion on Sunday to the Spanish frigates, and carried about six hundred passengers, the day being very fine. The Theatres are closed for the present, and the Amateur Dramatic performance is postponed for the present by request of the authorities.

IMPORTANT FROM PAYSANDU.

GREAT VICTORY BY GOMEZ 150 COLORADOS KILLED.

Yesterday an Oriental gentleman brought us a boletin published on the 17th in the office of the newspaper called 'La Defensa.' The following is a translation of the official document signed by Servando Gomez:—

Sor Col. Leandro Gomez.

Encampment Horqueta de Dn. Estevan Grande y Chico, Oct. 17th, 1864,

My dear friend.

At break of day I gained a glorious victory over the rebel chief Henry Castro who commanded a force of about seven hundred men. The loss of the enemy in killed is frightful, exceeding over 150 men, and amongst them several officers, &c.

I cannot give you details this moment because I am marching, but soon I will send you full particulars.

For such splendid triumph I congratulate both you and myself, and also all my valiant soldiers.

No more at present,

Yours, &c.

SERVANDO GOMEZ.

THE NEW ALABAMA.

The Paris correspondent of the "Daily News" says:—"It is not true, as reported by the 'Temps,' that Captain Semmes is in Paris, but it is said that he has sent for most of his officers to give them instructions for the armament of a new Alabama, of which he proposes shortly to take command. The 'France,' which seems to have received special information about this new ship, says that she is a small, beautifully formed corvette, iron-plated inside, and provided with powerful artillery. Captain Semmes has ordered three pivot guns capable of throwing hollow projectiles of 170, and solid projectiles of 220 English pounds. Her crew, which in the old Alabama, consisted of 142 men, is to be augmented to 172. The 'France' says that 'these details are positive.' It does not know in what port the new ship will be armed, but it believes that no surveillance can prevent it from putting to sea."

Patacons went up again to day, and look very firm for the end of the year. There are many purchasers, but good sellers are scarce.

There was great talk to-day on 'Change about the 'Standard' defending Minister Dominguez, after having so severely censured him; but all admit that this is the most decisive proof of our honest impartiality. When we are convinced that the Minister is economical and doing his best, no matter how we may have previously differed with him, it would be ungenerous and unfair on our part to withhold our praise. We judge Minister Dominguez by the state of the Provincial treasury; he has well cared the public funds, and deserves our entire confidence and thanks for so doing.

The mooted loan on the mortgage of the Montevidean custom-house building has not yet been effected. We hear that the proposed terms were one hundred thousand patacons per month for a term of five months, and the eslingage, &c., which yields 5,000 pats. per month, to be received as interest until the amount of the loan be paid.

On Tuesday two cartloads of good mestiza wool, belonging to a subscriber, near the Villa Luxan, were sold at 92. On yesterday three cartloads of fair mestiza wool, from the Villa Mercedes, belonging to a native estanciero, were sold at 90. To-day 2 cartloads of wool, belonging to an Englishman, residing near Mr. Bell's estancia, were sold in the South Plaza at 102. This wool, we hear, was in beautiful color and condition.

Exchange on England is very firm. Notwithstanding the number of drawers for this packet, the current rate is $49\frac{3}{8}$, but the Provincial Bank draws at $49\frac{1}{4}$. It is surmised that close on half a million sterling will be drawn by this packet.

We learn that it is not probable any specie will be shipped in the packet, unless possibly a small sum for one of the Brazilian ports.

It is a notable fact that the nearer the Brazilians approach the more our national securities depreciate. Many attribute the great fall in the value of these bonds to the scarcity of money, and no doubt this must affect them; but when we see them hawked through the city, not for the purpose of sale but merely to raise money, and even at a margin of seventy per cent. below par, with a tempting rate of interest, say one and one-half per cent. per month offered, still none willing to lend, we think, indeed, it a rather ominous sign of the limited confidence which exists in our present state of affairs.

It may never have occurred to President Mitre that amongst moneyed men the stability and credit of every government is judged by the market value of its bonds, yet such is the case; and so sensitive are some governments on this point that when their securities display any extreme weakness the government, in order to enhance their value, actually purchases, itself.

In Buenos Ayres where the normal rate of interest is high, the relative value which the six per cent. bonds should and ought to have is at least 60, but, through the jumbling of our financiers, the national bonds have never yet sold on the market at that rate. Our attention has been attracted to this subject by the difficulties which at present exist in realizing a security, which under proper management should and ought to be the best and most negotiable in Buenos Ayres.

The coupons on these bonds it appears are not paid except on presentation of the bond. This is a most inconvenient rule and hinders parties at home from investing in such securities, as every three months the bonds would have to be sent through the post.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUÁ AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

P.p. Mauá and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

General Agency and Commission House
WILD & PERKINS,
Rosario de S. Fé, Cordoba St. 87 & 89.

For the purchase and sale of land in this as well as other provinces; property of every description, domestic produce such as cattle, sheep, hides, wool, grains, metals &c; consignments of produce as well as merchandize to the Interior attended to, despatch of vessels, collections and representations in commercial affairs, &c.

The want of a Land and cattle Agency in Rosario to facilitate the sale or lease of landed property, the examination and arrangement of titles, &c. has been very prejudicial to the interests of new-comers, and has prevented many from purchasing in this Province.

The undersigned will give especial attention to this important branch of their business, and their experience in this as well as other countries inspires them with confidence that, in land transactions as well as other commission business with which they may be favored, they will give entire satisfaction,
